Dear Mr. Treloar,

This is to acknowledge your earlier inquiry to Admiral Turner concerning approaches to you in 1961 by someone interested in murdering Robert F. Kennedy. It is noted that you already have reported this to Representative Louis Stokes, Chairman of the House Select Committee on Assassinations.

This Agency has no jurisdiction for such a matter, so with your permission copies of your correspondence will be forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for such action as it may consider appropriate. Please let us know if this is acceptable.

Very truly yours,

S. D. Breckinridge
